Love Poems

by two American poets

A WORD TO HUSBANDS

by Ogden Nash (b.1902-d.1971)

At the time of his death, the New York Times noted that his “droll verse with its unconventional rhymes made him the country’s best-known producer of humorous poetry.”

To keep your marriage brimming,

With love in the loving cup,

Whenever you’re wrong, admit it;

Whenever you’re right, shut up.

UNFORTUNATE COINCIDENCE

by Dorothy Parker (b.1893-d.1967)

Known for her wit and wisecracks; an ardent feminist and one of the most well-regarded writers of the early 20th century.

By the time you swear you’re his,
Shivering and sighing,

And he vows his passion is Infinite, undying—

Lady, make a note of this:
One of you is lying.

DENIED

Are you eligible for Medicaid or not?

You may have heard about a recent case involving a young man denied Medicaid coverage because he had breast cancer. Widespread publicity and outrage led the state of South Carolina to reverse its decision and provide this man with the same coverage given to females.

Medicaid is a joint federal and state assistance program that helps with medical costs for individuals and families with low incomes, and few assets and resources. The acceptance process seems pretty cut and dry, but many of the regulations and rules are confusing, and there are special circumstances and allowances. For example, the man cited above, who would not typically qualify, was eligible through Medicaid's Breast and Cervical Cancer Prevention and Treatment Act.

If you have a question about Medicaid eligibility, believe you've been unfairly denied Medicaid coverage, or need help protecting your assets from long-term care costs, call our office to discuss your needs.
