

Gary says: The "Golden Hour"

Drivers have a "Golden Hour" after an automobile accident to protect their rights. After an hour, cars may be moved, the driver may not recall important details, and witnesses may depart.

- If there are injuries, get medical help right away.
- Call an attorney as soon as you can.
- Admit no wrongdoing. Sign no documents.
- Get witnesses' names and addresses.
- Obtain an accident report.
- Notify your insurer.

Come in and see me

I've had clients complain that we have never met. This should not happen. If you're ever curious about your case, or want to complain about something, or even if you just want to see if I really exist, please call my office for an appointment. I'm charming and really funny. I may even offer you coffee.

Referrals

Our practice continues to grow through referrals from our clients and friends. If you know someone who has been seriously injured or is buying or selling a house, co-op, condo, or commercial building, we hope you will recommend us.

Thank you,
Gary E. Rosenberg

Poem of the month:

Fog

by Carl Sandburg (1878-1967)

Carl Sandburg won two Pulitzer prizes for his work as a poet. Much of his poetry focused on his hometown of Chicago, Illinois. In addition to writing poems, he also recorded his work for people to listen to. He won a Grammy Award in 1959 for “Best Performance of Spoken Word.”

“Fog,” a mere six lines long, is written in verse form and is an innocent expression of finding beauty in an ordinary world.

The fog comes on little cat feet.

It sits looking over harbor and city
on silent haunches
and then moves on.
